

Randy Archie Sedain, age 50, of Wapello, Iowa, died Thursday morning, January 10, 2008, at the University of Iowa Hospitals & Clinics at Iowa City, Iowa, from injuries sustained in an early morning automobile accident. The son of Wesley and Phyllis Hutson Sedain, he was born December 25, 1957, at San Bernardino, California.

He was raised in the Victorville, California, area and attended school there. He graduated from Lake Havasu High School in Arizona. He attended college and served in the US Navy.

He worked at Tyson Foods at Columbus Junction.

Randy loved life to the fullest. He always had a kind word or a joke to put a smile on someone's face. He enjoyed Harley Davidson motorcycles, fishing, being outdoors, and teasing his wife. He loved his family and friends and was devoted to both. He was an excellent artist and left behind many beautiful pencil drawings. He will be missed greatly by all those whose lives he touched.

He is survived by his wife, Shirley Carr of Wapello; a son; a daughter; three step-sons, Danny Carr and Thomas Carr both of Victorville, California, and Bobby & Amber Carr of Wapello; a step-daughter, Stephanie & Mark Anderson of Victorville; a sister, Marsha Sedain of Victorville; three brothers, Earnest Sedain, Ronald Sedain, and Robert Sedain all of Victorville; eight grandchildren; and nieces & nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother.

He will be cremated. No visitation time is planned.

The memorial ceremony for Randy Sedain will be held at 11:00 A.M. on Friday, January 18, 2008, at the First Presbyterian Church at Wapello, with Rev. James H. Huston officiating.

The Dudgeon-McCulley Funeral Home at Wapello is providing the care and arrangements for Randy Sedain.
