

Paul Edward Stroud, 64, of Cincinnati died Wednesday, August 15, 2007, at home following a short illness. Paul was born July 12, 1943, the son of Homer and Faye Clinkenbeard Stroud. Paul attended and graduated from Cincinnati High School. He married Alice Ann Reid July 12, 1964 in Columbus Junction. Paul was preceded in death by his parents, Homer and Faye Stroud and daughter, Laura Ann Stroud.

Surviving family members are his wife, Alice; sons, Steven of Centerville, Rick of Columbus Junction and Jeffery of Clinton; brothers, Jack Stroud and wife, Norma of Centerville and Dean Stroud and wife, Juanita of Lake Thunderhead, MO; sister, Jean and husband, Robert Powell of St. Louis; eight grandchildren: Steven, Nathan, Paige, Taylor, Bailey, Benjamin, Nichlos and Jeffery; one great-grandchild, and a sister-in-law, Judy and Gary Carlo of Columbus Junction.

Paul was a long haul trucker for 20 years. He enjoyed the Pittsburgh Steelers and Nascar racing. He loved spending time with his dogs and grandchildren.

Memorial services were held at Cincinnati Community Church on August 18 at 2 p.m. with Pastor Donnel Logsdan officiating. Flowers and memorials can be sent to Paul Stroud, 310 Maple Street, Cincinnati, Iowa 52549.